

My comments in regard to the Federal "do not call rule". I live in Indiana, which adopted a statewide "do not call rule". I would not want a federal regulation that would in anyway weaken our state regulation. We are, for the first time, not afraid to answer the phone for fear of it being somekind of sales scam. Let Indiana keep our own regulation which is excellent.

Thank you,

Don Matchett